

Federal / Defense Contracting

Federal Contractors located in Charles County enjoy the combined benefits of strategic location, skilled workforce, a reverse commute, and quality office and industrial space. Virtually all of the Baltimore-Washington region's federal and military installations – from Patuxent River NAS to Quantico to Ft. Meade – lie within a 40-mile radius of Waldorf. On the western shore, Indian Head NSWC leads the Navy's Energetics Enterprise.

See how local businesses are supporting our military and federal agencies...

Multifaceted Security Services

Prototypes and Short Run Production

Geospatial Modeling and Methodology Integration

RAIDS – Rifle Actuated IED Defeat Systems

Traumatic Brain Injury \(TBI\) Modeling & Simulation

Energetics Informatics Data Warehouse \(EIDW\)

Assistance to industry:

Charles County has enormous growth opportunities. The best way to accomplish this goal is by assisting the businesses that are currently in Charles County. Click here to find out what assistance is available to your business.

DID YOU KNOW?

- MD ranks 2nd per capita, in nation, for procurement of Federal goods & services
- MD ranks 5th in total DoD expenditures
- MD ranks 2nd per capita/4th in total overall procurement